

Published on C & G Newspapers (<http://www.candgnews.com>)

September 15, 2010

Newberry descendant shares old ski jump's history

By Erin McClary
C & G Staff Writer

Photo provided by Rod Wilson and the Rochester-Avon Historical Society. The original Rochester Ski Jump, built on Newberry Hill, near John R and Bloomer Road in 1926, blew over in 1934. Construction of a new ski jump, reaching 160 feet tall, began on the same site in 1938.

You can reach C & G Staff Writer Erin McClary at emccclary@candgnews.com or at (586)279-1118.

