

*Welcome to the Rochester/Avon
Historical Society*

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. BARKHAM

The fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. And Mrs. Geo. W. Barkham which was celebrated at their home in Goodison, October 1, was a very pleasant event and one which will be long remembered by that worthy couple. The home was tastefully decorated with flowers and to the strains of a wedding march the company marched to the dining room where they enjoyed a sumptuous wedding dinner.

Mr. And Mrs. Barkham received many handsome souvenirs of the occasion, among them being a silver-baking pan from their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Gaunt and a cut glass fruit dish from their son, Geo. M. Barkham of Van Buren, Ark. The out of town guests were Mr. And Mrs. Walter Barkham of Holly; Mr. And Mrs. John A. Requadt and sons, John Jr. and Charles of Saginaw; Mr. And Mrs. Wm. Clothier of Davison; Mr. And Mrs. Hugh Curren, of Flint and Mrs. B. F. Proctor of Romeo. Regrets were received from Van Buren, Ark., Montreal, Can., Oakland, Cal., Sherman, Saranac and Tustin.

The Rochester Era, Rochester, Michigan October 9, 1903