

SILVER WEDDING

Mr. & Mrs. Allen Brewster

On Monday, September 27th, Mr. & Mrs. Allen Brewster of Oakland celebrated their silver wedding with sixty-two of their friends and relatives and received the following gifts as tokens of their regard and friendship:

George, Perry and wife, Bethael Flummerfelt and wife, J.P. Coon and wife, C.S. Voorhees and wife, C. Farmer and wife, A. Pittenger and wife, and W. S. Van riper, a large silver ice pitcher; John Young and wife, silver fruit dish; L. Brownell and wife, silver pickle server, Mr. Windiate and wife, silver fish knife; N. Brownell and wife and Mr. McKay and wife, silver spoon holder; Jas. Davis and wife, silver spoon holder; Wm Harding and wife, silver fish knife; Peter Brewster and wife, silver sugar and cream spoon; W. A. Brewster and wife, silver pickle fork and butter knife; Wm. F. Perry and wife, three silver table spoons; Ezra Brewster and wife, six beautiful table knives; their son, Oscar, napkin ring; W. P. Brewster and wife, six nice table knives; Mr. Johnson and wife and Mr. Starkey and wife, nine knives; their three eldest daughters, one dozen silver forks; George, Gouch, silver syrup cup; Clark Brewster, silver box; Mr. Brewster and wife half dozen silver nut picks; Fleet Chapman and wife and Soloa Harris and wife, each a silver dollar; Owen Brewster and wife, nice table cloth; Mr. Hillman and wife and Mr. Rouleston and wife, camp chair; Mrs. Wm. Toms, silver sugar spoon; Mr. Brown and wife, pair of beautiful vases; Eddy Brewster, silver pickle fork.

At nine o'clock all were invited to a nice supper; after supper Mr. A. Pittenger was called upon to play for the company, and he was not long in bringing forward that well known instrument, the viola and the old and young were soon upon the floor skipping the 'fantastic toe' until four in the morning, when the party broke up with the best wishes that Mr. And Mrs. B may live a long life and enjoy their beautiful gifts with happiness and prosperity.

Yours Respectfully,

William Toms
