

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN CALIFORNIA HOME

Word has been received here of the death of Wm. C. Adams, aged 81 years, who died at his home in Uplands, Calif., February 26, where he had resided for the past 20 years. Deceased was an old resident of Rochester, at one time owning and living on the farm now owned by O.P. Gibbs, one mile west of this city.

Surviving are the widow and two children, Claire, of Detroit, and Elna, at home, whose husband died one week after the death of Mr. Adams.

THE ROCHESTER CLARION, Rochester, Mich., 12 March 1926