

CHARLES S. BEMIS

Charles S. Bemis passed into the higher life Monday, Oct. 14, 1901, while on a visit to friends near Fostoria, Tuscola County this state when he died very suddenly of heart failure, after being sick but one hour. He was born July 15, 1819, in Stafford, Conn., making him at the time of his transition 82 years of age. Forty or more of these years were spent in Rochester, where he had many friends. He was a man of sterling character, with a kind and loving soul, always ready to help the poor or sympathize with the suffering. He was an earnest Spiritualist and tried to exemplify its beautiful teachings in his daily life. He has gone to receive a just reward for his many kindly deeds. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. George Newberry of Second Street, his wife having preceded him several years ago and a large circle of friends. The remains were brought home Monday night and funeral services were held from the late home Wednesday afternoon.

Newspaper Clipping 1901