

CHARLES FLUMERFELT

Charles Flumerfelt, son of Geo. M. Flumerfelt of Oakland, died last Monday morning, aged 22 years.

He had been sick about two weeks with typhoid fever, and everything that medical skill and nursing could accomplish was done in his behalf, but in vain. Charley was a general favorite with all who knew him, being genial and pleasant in his manner, and his loss will be keenly felt by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. His stricken parents have the sincere sympathy of all in the ir affliction.

The funeral was largely attended from the family residence, Wednesday afternoon, and the remains interred in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery.

The Rochester Era

September 2, 1887