

SAMUEL S. HADLEY

Samuel S. Hadley was born Sept. 17, 1858, the youngest son of Jacob and Mary A. Hadley. Rochester, Michigan had always been his home, spending nearly all his life on the farm with his parents. For the past ten years he has been broken in health physically and mentally. He was an inmate of the Pontiac Asylum three years where he departed this life Dec. 15, 1902. Three sisters and two brothers remain to mourn the loss of one who in health was a kind and loving brother. The remains were brought here on Tuesday at 2 pm and funeral services were conducted at the Universalist Church, Rev. Dr. Belter officiating, and the remains laid to rest in the family lot in Rochester Cemetery.
