

MRS. EVA LOOK NAGENGAST

The following concerning the death of Mrs. Nagengast, will come as a shock to many Rochester friends, who knew her as Eva Look. She was the only child of Henry M. and Helen P. Look, and her's was a most beautiful and lovely character:

Mrs. Evelyn Louise Nagengast, only child of Mrs. Helen P. Look, died at Salt Lake City, October 15, of brain trouble, after an illness of only a few hours.

The death was very sudden and exceedingly sad. Only a few hours before the end she was apparently as well as ever, and was anticipating with great pleasure the return from California of her aunt, Mrs. Milo P. Newberry, of Rochester, Mich., who had previously been visiting with her for a few weeks, and was on her way back. The aunt instead of meeting her niece at the depot as was expected and promised, found upon reaching the home that death had taken the loved one away. She was a member of the Pontiac high school, class of '83 and is the fifth one of the class to leave the cherished circle. As a girl she was much interested in the ladies' literary association of Pontiac and devoted much of her time to its interests. Even to the end of life she found time for the indulgence in her literary and artistic tastes, which were of a high order. She was a beautiful spirit, tender in her home relation, and constant, strong and tender in her religious life uniting with the Methodist Church in Pontiac in girlhood. She maintained to the end of life a devoted membership.

It was our sorrowful privilege to be present at the funeral services and to offer a tribute of appreciation of her beautiful life as known from a personal acquaintance with her and her father and mother. The broken-hearted mother fro Colorado was also present at the services. She, with a devoted and sorrow stricken husband and a little 3 year old son, are the only ones left of the home. Their's is a sad loss indeed, to be sustained only by the help of the Omnipotent Hand. The interment was in this city.
