

FEDELIA 'DEEDIE' NEWBERRY POWERS

Died, at Coupeville, Wash., Feb. 25, 1890, Mrs. H. C. Powers, formerly Miss Deedie Newberry, of this village, aged 29 years. The news of Deedie's death came with crushing force upon her many friends in Rochester where she was born, and where her father, a brother and sister and many relatives still live. She went to Washington about three years ago to teach. Returning home about 18 months ago but for a few weeks she returned again to take charge of her school. She had been married about a year. Her bright, sunny ways won her friends wherever she went, and it is with feelings of more than ordinary sorrow that we chronicle her early death. She leaves a husband and a pair of twin babies less than a month old.

Newspaper Clipping    1890