

WILLIAM STANLEY

The body of the late Wm. Stanley, who died at his home in Clifford, Lapper County, after an illness of but four days was brought to Rochester for burial last Tuesday afternoon. His two daughters, Mrs. Whitney and Miss Hannah Stanley, and his grandson, Wm. Whitney, accompanied the remains. Mr. Stanley lived in Southwest Avon many years on the farm now owned by John T. Smith. He sold out and removed to Clifford some sixteen years ago. He was 80 years old.

The Rochester Era, Rochester, Michigan 10 Oct 1902