

WILLIAM TOMS

William Toms, an old resident of Goodison, died very suddenly last Saturday. He was struck down while in his store and was at once conveyed to his home, where he soon died. Mr. Toms was an active, energetic man, and will be greatly missed in the community where he had lived so many years. At the time of his death he was postmaster and station agent. His age was 64. He was buried in Baldwin Cemetery, Oakland, last Tuesday, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. R. D. Robinson, of this village. Obituary next week.

The Rochester Era

Friday, October 14, 1887