

ELLEN MOSEY WEAVER

Ellen, daughter of George and Hannah Mosey, was born in Yorkshire, England, Dec. 8, 1838. Removed with the family to America when ten years of age, settling in the state of New York, and subsequently removing to Springfield, Oakland Co., Michigan. Here she professed faith in Christ and at the age of 18 or 19 united with the M. E. Church, a union which has never been severed, and which has been to her, in all the vicissitudes of life, her greatest joy and comfort. April 12, 1859, she was united in marriage to Harrison Weaver, also of Springfield, and all through the 38 years and ore of their married life she has been a faithful, affectionate wife and mother. Seven children were born to them, of whom three have preceeded their mother to the Better Land.

Mrs. Weaver died at her home in South Avon, Monday, Dec. 20, and the funeral services were largely attended Christmas Day from the M. E. Church.

Newspaper Clipping 1897