

PENINAH WOODWARD

Mrs. Woodward, widow of the late Hon. Lysander Woodward, died at her late home north of Rochester, last Sunday morning, after a painful illness of more than a year. She leaves four children – Robert I. Woodward of Cornell University; H. Woodward of Flint; Mrs. John Scott and Mrs. A. S. Parker, of Detroit. Mrs. Woodward was a lady of rare executive ability and social qualities and leaves many sorrowing friends. Funeral services were held from the late home last Tuesday morning. Rev. Reed Stuart, of Detroit, officiating. Interment was made in Rochester Cemetery.
