

COOPER/HARTWICK RITES

A very pretty wedding took place Saturday evening, February 20th, of interest to many Rochester people, was that of Edna L. Hartwick, oldest daughter of Mrs. Robert Jenney, of Corunna and Hoyle O. Cooper, on of Mr. and Mrs. M.M. Cooper, of Mobile, Ala.

The single ring ceremony was performed at the Berkley Community Church, of Berkley, by Rev. Orrin Van Loon, the church being beautifully decorated with latticework and palms as the Marriage altar.

The bride was gowned in light green crepe being of straight lines, with tiny flares at the sides trimmed with coral and tan bands. She wore a picture hat of green and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses, narcissus and baby breath.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Verner Sipperly, of Detroit, wore green crepe of darker shade and small hat to match, carried bouquet of pink rose buds and sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. William Thompson of Detroit, and Miss Pearl Wynn of Sarnia, Ont., wore pencil blue and light blue satin, with hats to match, and carried bouquet the same as matron of honor.

A. Lawrence and little Miss Arlyle Hartwick, son and daughter of the bride, acted as ring bearer and flower girl.

Mr. Verner Sipperly of Detroit, cousin of the bride, assisted the groom as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will spend a four weeks wedding trip in the South and be at home to their many friends after June 1, at 2425 Beaverley Blvd., Berkley.
