Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was secured by a matching beaded bow and her bridal bouquet was cascading white stephanotis and phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Peter Franchino of Rochester was matron of honor for her sister-in-law with Mrs. James Doyle of Bay City and Jane Ziegler of Denver, Colorado as bridesmaids.

All attendants were gowned identically in mint green linen and carried cascading yellow pom poms and roses.

Dale Burmeister of Bay City assumed the role of best man for the groom. Ushering duties were handled by James Doyle of Bay City and David Roberts of Gregory, Michigan.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Franchino pinned a white orchard at the shoulder of her dress of pale gold silk. Mrs. Bartman, mother of the groom also wore white orchids with her dress of blue silk.

Following a reception at the Rochester Elks Lodge, the new Mr. and Mrs. Bartman left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan. Upon return they will make their home in Bay City where both are members of the Bay City school system. Both are graduates of Central Michigan University.
