

MC GUINNES – GRUND VOWS EXCHANGED

Sharon Marie McGuinness became the bride of Allan James Grund in rites Saturday, August 23 at St. John the Evangelist Church, Hudson, New Hampshire.

The bride is the daughter of James T. McGuinness of Hudson, New Hampshire and the late Mrs. McGuinness. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grund of Oxford are parents of the groom.

For her wedding, the former Miss McGuinness selected a Victorian style gown of white organza with daisy embroidery trim and pink satin sash. A matching pink and white headpiece held her shoulder length veil of silk illusion and she carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies, pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Maureen Ann McGuinness of Boston was maid of honor for her sister. Her dress was white lace and rose shantung with green satin sash and ink nose veil held by a matching pink wreath headpiece. Her flowers were white daisies surrounding a pink rose. In identical gown with skirt of pale pink shantung was bridesmaid, Sheila Jeanne McGuinness, another sister of the bride. Timothy Grund assisted his brother as best man. Ushers included another brother, Peter Grund; William Kerner, Mt. Clemens; and Gerald DeRuiter, St. Clair Shores.

For her son's wedding and reception which followed at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Nashua, New Hampshire, Mrs. Grund wore an off white dress with pink accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Upon return from their honeymoon to Bermuda the new Mr. and Mrs. Grund will take up residence at Lake Orion.

The couple both graduated from Rochester High School. The groom recently returned from a year's tour of Vietnam.
