

IRONSIDE/VAN NORMAN VOWS

EXCHANGED AUG. 29

Pamela Jane Van Norman and Louis James Ironside were married on August 29 at a double ring ceremony in St. Andrews Catholic Church, Rochester. The Reverend Father Thomas Byrnes and The Reverend E. Warren Clarke, former pastor at First Baptist Church of Royal Oak, now of New Hampshire, officiated at the ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Van Norman, 1353 Catalpa, Rochester; and Mr. and Mrs. William W. Ironside of Berkley.

The bride designed and made her own gown. It was a floor length A-Line of silk organza over taffeta with hand beaded lace yoke and neckline. The full three quarter length sleeves were also trimmed with cuffs of lace and beading. Her fingertip veil was secured to a cluster of ribbon loops. The bride carried phalaenopsis orchids surrounded by miniature carnations and ivy.

Maid of Honor was Kirsten Cole of Wilmington, North Carolina, who wore mint green silk organza with an empire waist. She carried a colonial bouquet of bronze and yellow poms.

Bridesmaids were Linda Schmidt, of Rochester, Laurie Ironside and Sally Ironside, both sisters of the bridegroom. They were attired identical to the Maid of Honor but in varying shades of apricot. They carried colonial bouquets of bronze daisy poms.

Best man at the rite was Steven Hornbeck of Royal Oak. Ushers were James Naas of Royal Oak, John Ruisaard of Pleasant Ridge and Carl Bell of Troy.

Mrs. Van Norman wore an A-Line ensemble in peach color with a beaded neckline. Mrs. Ironside was attired in a turquoise blue empire dress trimmed with crystal beads. Both mothers wore corsages of cymbidium orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Rochester. The bridal couple spent their honeymoon at Cape Cod. Upon returning they will reside in Marquette, Michigan where the groom is a senior at Northern.

The bride formerly was employed at Crittenton Hospital in Rochester in the Physical Therapy Department.

Special out of town guests at the wedding were from Wisconsin, Arizona, New Hampshire, Ohio and Canada.
