

HUNTER – LAURIE VOWS EXCHANGED

Jennifer A. Hunter became the bride of Dennis C. Laurie in a double ring service Saturday, August 30 at St. John Lutheran Church. The Rev Richard L. Schlecht officiated at the evening rites in the presence of one hundred and fifty guests.

The new Mrs. Laurie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Simmons of 722 Wilcox Street. The Lewis Lauries of 2930 Weaverton Street are parents of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride descended the aisle in a gown of silk organza and Alencon lace over peau de soie, with lace ruffles at the neckline and wrists. Her floor length veil of imported silk illusion was secured by a Camelot cap and she carried a cascading arrangement of roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. David Hart of Rochester was matron of honor for the bride. Her gown was pale yellow chiffon and her flowers were yellow roses and stephanotis.

In identical gowns to the honor attendant were bridesmaids, Joan Kimbrough and Judy Shelton, both of Rochester. Claudia Simmons was junior bridesmaid for her sister, and Becky Sue Beebe, Chicago was flower girl. The bride's brother, Charles Simmons, was ring bearer.

On the esquire side, the groom was attended by Rick Milliron of Troy as best man. Ushers included Jon and Jody Hunter, brothers of the bride; and James Long of Rochester.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed in the church parlors, Mrs. Simmons wore Nile green chiffon over taffeta and beige accessories. Mrs. Laurie, mother of the groom, selected blue crepe. Both mothers wore carnation corsages tipped in colors to match their dresses.

Upon return from a wedding trip to Ohio, the new Mr. and Mrs. Laurie will be at home in Oxford.
