

LEKO/HOLIDAY VOWS EXCHANGED OCTOBER 18

Honeymooning in northern Michigan following their exchange of vows Saturday, October 18 at Avondale Baptist Church are newly married Mr. and Mrs. John A. Leko Jr.

The rev. Alger T. Lewis officiated at the double ring evening rites in the presence of two hundred guests.

The new Mrs. Leko is the former Marie Linda Holiday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar L. Holiday of 2912 S. Livernois. Her husband is the son of the senior John A. Lekos of 3791 Hazelton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of white silk crepe with Alencon lace bodice and chapel train. Her bouffant elbow length veil of milk illusion was held by a pearl and Crystal tiara and her bridal bouquet was tea roses and carnations.

Jacalyn Holiday as honor attendant for her sister and sisters Debra Holiday and Mrs. Beverly Post and Miss Pamela Carlson of Pontiac as bridesmaids were dressed identically in floor length royal blue velvet with matching ribbon headpieces. All carried colonial arrangements of white carnations.

The groom had the assistance of Michael Lynn of Rochester as best man. Ushers were Randall Post of Auburn Heights and David Leko, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Holiday selected gold lace. Mrs. Leko, mother of the groom, wore blue chiffon. Both accented their ensembles with tea roses.

A reception was held at Rochester Municipal Park pavilion immediately following the rites.

Both young people were graduated from Avondale High School. The new bridegroom currently attends Oakland University. The couple will make their home in Troy.
