

VOWS ARE REPEATED

Glenna Carlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Carlton Sr. of Albertson Street became the bride of Richard Lucas in services recently at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Utica. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lucas of Pappy Lane.

For her wedding, the former Miss Carlton selected a street length empire styled dress of light blue brocade trimmed in blue velvet. A matching blue pill box headpiece held her brief shoulder length veil and she carried a colonial arrangement of white roses surrounded by blue tipped carnations. The bride's entire ensemble was fashioned by her grandmother, Mrs. Dorothy Carlton of Romeo.

Beverly Taylor of Waterford was maid of honor for the bride. She wore a dress of peach and white crepe with matching accessories and carried white mums and peach tipped carnations.

Don Cason of Utica was best man. Ushers included Tom Hazel and Robert Wilson, both of Utica.

A reception for one hundred guests was held at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Florence Brewster immediately following the rites.
